

see

care

share

safety share

Preventing Foreign Body Contamination

To ensure the risk of foreign body contamination in our foods by security seals and bag ties on dry goods, please follow the below process before removing items from the dry store to the food preparation area

Before removing packaged items from the dry stores, please remove any security seals or bag ties from the packaging and dispose of in the bin below prior to taking the product into the food preparation area

